6 Days: September 11 - 16, 2021

Day 1

Enjoy a boxed breakfast as we make our way to Lawrenceburg, Indiana and our first overnight at the Hollywood Casino & Hotel.

Day 2

We will make our way into West Virginia today and make a lunch stop at Hillbilly Hot Dogs (lunch is at your own expense). Then we will stop at the Blenko Glass Company Factory to see the artists at work. We will overnight for the next two nights at the Mardi Gras Casino & Resort in Cross Lanes, WV.

Day 3

A local guide will join us today as we tour the New River Gorge. The guide will tell us about the heritage and history of the region while you see small waterfalls and scenic view points as we make our way to Hawks Nest State Park. We will make a photo stop at Hawks Nest State Park where the scenic overlook provides a bird's eye view of the rugged New River Gorge National River below. Then we will stop at the New River Gorge Bridge Overlook where you get a visual realization of the great distance from the top of the bridge to the bottom of the gorge. Next, you'll have time for lunch (at your own expense) at a visit to Tamarack, known as the Craft Center of West Virginia. This afternoon, we will tour the Beckley Exhibition Coal Mine. A veteran coal miner will take us 1500 feet beneath the surface riding an authentic "man car." In addition, you can tour the period camp buildings and The Mountain Homestead, a 19th Century Appalachian Village.

Day 4

This morning we will ride the New Tygart Flyer with an included Hobo Lunch. This train ride travels through pristine mountain wilderness to the High Falls of the Cheat River. This waterfall is 5 miles from the nearest road. We will overnight at the Rocky Gap Resort & Casino. This luxury hotel is a mountain retreat that sits on the shores of a beautiful mountain lake.

Day 5

The train will arrive in Frostburg, MD where you will have time to explore this historic town and enjoy lunch (at your own expense).
