

Distinctively Detroit Tours

It's not just a tour...it's an EXCLUSIVE experience

You are going to “Lose Yourself” on this tour of the movie filming sites of 8 Mile as well as some of the sites of Eminem’s real life. We have plenty of “Places to Go” as we get on our “Rap Game”. This will be an “Adrenaline Rush” for true 8 Mile and Eminem fans! The movie 8 Mile hit theaters in fall of 2002 and ever since, people from all over the world can identify the name of at least one Detroit Street...8 Mile! We’ll start off with a behind-the-scenes tour of the Studio where songs from the 8 Mile Soundtrack, The Marshall Mathers LP, and The Eminem Show Albums were recorded. You will see views of Eminem’s Studio, Effigy Studio, see the Giant Cow Head, the Mobile Court Home, Lincoln High School, which Eminem attended, Osborn High School where Eminem’s best friend, Proof, attended and Eminem would frequent to do cafeteria rap. View the Stamping Company where Jimmy worked in 8 Mile and many other locations that were featured in the film like The Shelter, Louie’s Lounge and the Penobscot Building, which was the home to WJLB Radio Station in the movie. Before the end we will make a photo stop at the D12 Eminem Mural and you will enjoy some food from Mom’s Spaghetti and time to explore the “Trailer” at Mom’s to purchase merchandise and see some Eminem costumes. Get ready to experience Detroit 8 Mile style with video, music, and more! You might even win a prize if you know the answers to some fun trivia about Eminem and 8 Mile!
