EXPERIENCES

TEA, TRAY & TIFFANY
(DUBUQUE, IA)
OCTOBER 17TH, 2024
PER PERSON RATE: $139

We will start our day in Dubuque at St. Luke's Methodist Church with a guided tour. See several of their beautiful stained glass Tiffany windows like the "Maiden among the Lillies" which is the window above the altar or the most brilliantly colored of all the windows portrays David, King of Israel, clad in richly jeweled robes, the last Tiffany-stained glass window to be installed in the church. There are 9 beautiful Tiffany-stained glass windows in all. Next, we'll make our way to Breitbart's Country Dining for a buffet lunch featuring their made fresh daily menu including seasonal soup, a salad bar, a noodle salad, coleslaw, fresh vegetables, 2-3 sides of meat choices, hot vegetable, mashed potatoes and gravy and their delicious pie for dessert. Betty Jane Candies has been providing Iowans and the nation with the finest in homemade chocolates and candies for nearly a century. Their journey began in Dubuque IA in 1938 and is still home to their headquarters, production facility and candy store today and home to the infamous Gremlin. Everyone will receive a gremlin, chocolate-covered caramel and a truffle from Betty Jane! Our final stop will be at the Fannie Stout House, built by Henry Stout in 1893 and given to his daughter Fannie as a wedding gift in 1898. We will take a history tour and enjoy cupcakes, tea or coffee.
